In Living with Art, Getlein describes how the way that Caravaggio painted the slab that Christ is being laid onto seems to “project forward from the picture plane and into our space” (Getlein 399) thus making the viewer feel immersed in the art.
These methods used were common methods employed by Caravaggio.

"Living with Art" provides the tools to help students think critically about the visual arts. Using a wealth of examples, the first half of the text examines the nature, vocabulary, and elements of art, offering a foundation for students to learn to analyze art effectively. The latter half sets out a brief but comprehensive history of art, leading students to understand art within the context of its time and place of origin.
