Arguably Belize's most beautiful stretch of road, the winding Hummingbird Hwy offers unparalleled views of the Maya Mountains as it passes through jungles, citrus orchards and tiny villages. The Hummingbird also offers plenty of reasons to stop for a few hours and there are some fine upmarket lodges and budget guesthouses along the way

I bought this as a gift as the person it's for is going to a cruise to Belize and it's a great read to make the most of your time there and even learn about the country. Lonely planet is the only guide book I buy when wanting to research a country. Its packed full of tips and highlights the best places to visit.

The 575-acre St Herman's Blue Hole National Park contains St Herman's Cave, one of the few caves in Belize that you can visit without a guide. The visitors center (where flashlights can be rented for BZ$3) is 11 miles along the Hummingbird Hwy from Belmopan. From here a 500yd trail leads to St Herman's Cave.

This is the Belize District chapter from Lonely Planet's Belize guidebook. Belize City gets a bad rap for its impoverished areas, some of which are plagued by crime and violence. But the seaside city also embodies the country's amazing cultural diversity, its neighbor-hoods packed with people, restaurants and shops that represent every ethnicity.

This is a great guide to Belize. It provides terrific, detailed information about each region, plus part of neighboring Guatemala. I knew practically nothing about Belize before reading it, so I was very happy to learn about the differences among the different regions, particularly with regard to how big the crowds are and how heavily developed they are.
